

re :

wor

The word 'work' is rendered in a highly stylized, layered font. Each letter is composed of multiple overlapping, semi-transparent shapes in various colors: 'w' is blue and green, 'o' is pink, 'r' is blue and green, and 'k' is orange and red. The letters have a jagged, sawtooth-like top edge, giving them a textured, hand-cut appearance. The background is a solid light gray.

Einladung

zur Begrüßung unserer neuen Fellows und der

Eröffnung des Akademischen Jahres 2018/2019

am Donnerstag, 25. Oktober 2018 um 18:00 Uhr

in der Georgenstr. 23, 10117 Berlin, 6. Etage ☎ ☒ Friedrichstr.

Über eine Bestätigung Ihrer Teilnahme unter der E-Mail-Adresse rework@asa.hu-berlin.de würden wir uns sehr freuen.

Programm

Begrüßung

Andreas Eckert,
Direktor des Kollegs

Grußwort

Eva Inés Obergfell,
Vizepräsidentin für Studium und Lehre

Festvortrag

“Reflections on Revolution, Work, and the Founding of German Democracy 1918–19”

Kathleen Canning
Rice University, Houston

Im Anschluss laden wir zu einem kleinen Empfang.
GÜLINA wird uns musikalisch durch den Abend begleiten.

Fellows 2018/2019

Thomas Adams, Sydney: Robert Charles' Worlds: Labor, Migration and the Political Economy of the Jim Crow Gulf Coast, 1877—1965

Supurna Banerjee, Kolkata: From Mazdoor to Naukrani: Making of a Precariat Labour

Eszter Bartha, Budapest: Social and Political Attitudes of the “Old” and “New” Industrial Working Classes in Eastern Germany (the former GDR) and Hungary

Baz Lecocq, Berlin: Awad el Djouh: A Global Microhistory of Slave Trade in the Mid-Twentieth Century

Marcel van der Linden, Amsterdam: Why Do Workers (Not) Rebel?

Dina Makram-Ebeid, Cairo: Precarious Revolution: Work and Labour in the Shadows of the Egyptian Rebellion of 2011

Melissa Marschke, Ottawa: Ecologies of Labour: Unpacking Labour Abuse in the Seafood Sector

Blair Rutherford, Ottawa: Labour and Social Citizenship in Neoliberal Times: Lessons from Rural Sub-Saharan Africa

Jana Tschurenev, Göttingen: Widowhood, Professionalism and ‘Social Service’: Histories of Early Childhood Care and Education in India, 1880s to 1950s

Nitin Varma, Berlin: Domestic Work and Labour History in 19th and early 20th Century India

Bahru Zewde, Addis Ababa: Corvée Labour in Ethiopian History

Guests of the Director 2018/2019

Pauli Kettunen, Helsinki: Corporate Citizens and Social Partners: Neo-Voluntarism and Soft Governance in the Regulation of Labour

Aslı Vatansöver, Padova: The Making of the Neoliberal Worker: Human Resources Management and the Alignment of the Worker with the Flexible Time-Regime